... and YOU!

It's a New Year and the slate's clear! Join Rain Taxi Review of Books, the Walker Art Center, and Lunalux for a poetry and printing party, featuring local writers reading quick quips in 20 seconds or less that will inspire a series of slogan cards for 2014. Get in on the action: compose your own short poetic resolution then blast it out at the open mic, and don't leave without making a commemorative print. A cash bar and snacks are provided.
